Participation in class

In my opinion all the topics were very interesting, however the last session was very useful for me.

First classes were more a little bit more interesting than the last ones. Analyzing different texts and giving little explanations in academic English have been the most attractive parts of the course, as these lessons have been very useful for restructuring some chapters of my thesis.

The structure of different parts in academic writing

Writing of an introduction and writing tips.

7. Areas for improvement: please tell us what you think is missing.

To have all the resources open since the start of the course

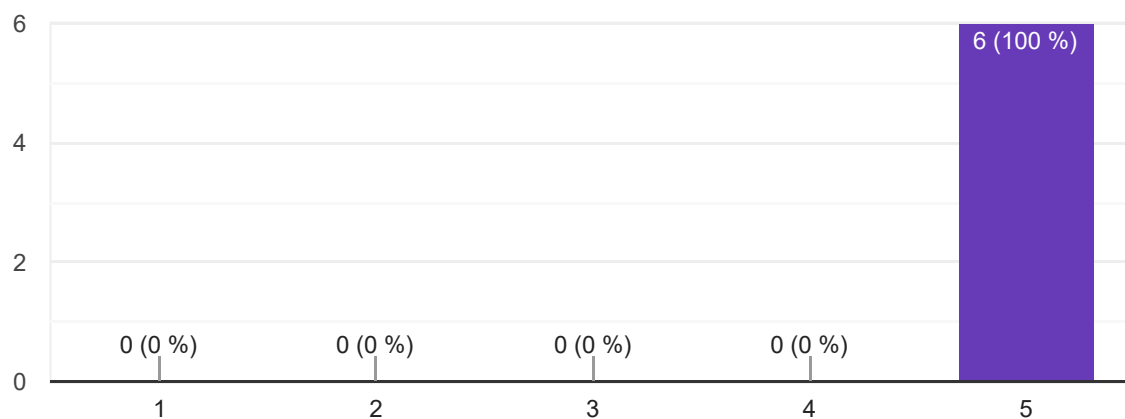

Everything can always be improved, but in my opinion the course have enough content for taking advantage of the lessons.

Maybe to separate science students and social science/humanities students in each semester, as their thesis are quite different

Probably it would be better to schedule some courses one hour later, as students with usual office timetable could have got some problems to assist to a cross-curricular course.

11. When do you prefer to take our cross-curricular courses?
